We have structured this mediation to address three common concerns that we have heard from professionals interested in Collaborative Practice who have thus far been unable to find a mediation training that is the "right fit" for them:

- (1) a mediation course that not only satisfies CLII's mediation training requirement but also specifically teaches how mediation skills are applied in Collaborative Practice;
- (2) a mediation course that involves the least amount of disruption to the work week; and
- (3) a mediation course that provides ample opportunity to "practice" the skills being taught.

We look forward to your participation in an exciting and engaging training. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Brigitte, Stanley, and Rita
